The Midwest Chapter/MLA is one of fourteen regional chapters affiliated with the Medical Library Association (MLA).

The chapter promotes excellence in the practice of health sciences librarianship by providing its members with regional opportunities for:

- leadership
- continuing education,
- professional development, and
- peer interaction.

In addition, the chapter serves as a communications channel between MLA and the chapter’s members.

Midwest Chapter membership is open to anyone interested in health sciences libraries, including non-MLA members and individuals living or working outside the chapter’s geographic boundaries.

The chapter needs the talents and leadership skills of its members in order to continue to achieve its goals.

Opportunities for involvement include:

Chapter Elected Office
- President Elect
- Recording Secretary
- Treasurer
- Membership Secretary
- Representative at Large
- MLA Chapter Council Representative

Chapter Committee or Task Force
- Annual Meeting/Program
- Archives
- Audit
- Awards & Scholarships
- Communications
- Finance
- Governmental Relations
- Membership
- Nominations & Elections
- Professional Practice
- State Liaison
